ORDER:

The priority list in regard to the provision of employment assistance through Employment Exchanges was reissued in G.O.MS.No.1873, Public (Services-J), dated 10.8.1970 first read above. Subsequently, additions and deletions of certain categories of persons have been ordered in the government orders third and seventh read above. The Government of India in their order second read above have given a higher priority for disabled Ex-Servicemen and for the members of the family of Defense Services personnel killed in action. The Government have, therefore, examined in consultation with the Director of Employment and Training, Madras, the question of further revising and reissuing the order of priority on the lines of the priorities laid down by the Government of India.

2. In supersession of the orders issued in the Government order first read above, as subsequently amended, the Government direct that the order of priorities in regard to provision of employment assistance through Employment Exchanges shall be as indicated in the annexure to this Government order.

3. The rule of reservation shall be made applicable to all vacancies whether they are filled by priority or non-priority category.
